Going, Going, Gone!!!

Food, fun and bargains galore are promised for this year's annual Rotary Auction & Spring Fair. You will find everything from a logging truck full of firewood to scuba diving lessons.

Need a new television set? Or perhaps you have relatives coming to town and want to take them whale-watching? Maybe you need a new toilet for your ensuite? How about an antique cradle for your long awaited grandchild? Or maybe you're planning a small wedding or family reunion and dream of a wonderful setting like the Grouse Nest. You'll find all these things and more among next Saturday's live and silent auction items listed on the following pages.

Everyone's invited, from new Sooke to old Sooke, from bargain hunters to brazen bidders, young and old. And just for coming through the door you get a free chance at winning this year's Sooke Home Hardware door prize - a BBQ!!

Last year nearly a thousand people visited the show and this year's event is expected to be equally popular.

The EMCS Culinary Arts Café is new to the show and guaranteed to be a favourite. The Café features the talented young chefs in this popular program. They'll be tantalizing your taste buds with freshly baked muffins and cookies. Then they'll satisfy your lunchtime hungries with fabulous, tasty and healthy fare like delicious soups and sandwiches.

The Dunk Tank is back again. You can dunk politicians, bureaucrats, coaches and players for the Rotary cause. Last year Mayor Janet Evans drew the longest line-ups!

Sooke Firefighters are again offering their succulent pig roast to tide you over between the silent and live auctions. Plan to stay for dinner and conveniently get those last minute bids on the silent auction items just before your competitor does!

Since it started in 1991, Treasurer David Stocks says this event has generated more than $200,000 to support the local community. This year, businesses and residents have donated close to 500 auction items, cash, raffle prizes and services valued at over $61,000. Items run the gamut from the practical (96 rolls of toilet paper) to the cultural (two tickets for Cirque du Soleil's Saltim Banco). According to Rotarian Peter Faulkner, two of the most memorable items auctioned last year were Canucks hockey sticks signed by Trevor Linden and Willie Mitchell. Who knows what will be most popular this year?

THREE Reasons for Attending

A message from Rotary President Kel Phair

Here's a chance to find a bargain, meet your neighbours, and make a difference, all in one day. Three good reasons to mark your calendar, round up the family and join us this Saturday.

Local businesses always give generously to this event, our major annual fundraiser. Every year brings new and different auction items. There are always great deals to be found and this year is no exception! Check out the many great auction items in this flyer.

You never know who you'll bump into at this event. It's a great place to reconnect with people you just never see anymore. Start a friendly, bidding war over a silent auction item! Schmooze with politicians! Sample some fine cuisine at the EMCS Culinary Arts Café! Dunk a local celebrity!

The proceeds from this event seed many local projects like the Rotary pier, hospice beds, a shelter for pre-schoolers in the CASA playground and this year, a 24 passenger bus to support SEAPARC children and youth programs. We support local youth through bursaries, leadership training, youth exchanges to other countries, and travel support for local sports teams. We support literacy through ongoing donations to schools for the purchase of library books. You can help this work while having fun at the Auction and Spring Fair.

So come for the bargains, the people and for Sooke. I expect to see you there! Look me up. Saturday - SEAPARC arena. Don't forget!
